

BARRY ROBINSON MA. B.ED HONS. CERT.ED

Barry is a former Head Teacher of a leading residential special school for boys and girls aged 11-18 who experience social, emotional and mental health difficulties. During his 17 years as Head, the school achieved 14 Outstanding Ofsted inspection reports for both education and care.

For 38 years Barry has worked in residential special education, specialising particularly in supporting children and young people with SEMH high functioning Autism, and those with a range of cognitive learning difficulties. Barry is also an experienced Team Teach Advanced trainer.

Barry qualified as an Ofsted Inspector in 1997, inspecting a number of special schools since then, and has supported a number of special schools, Local Authorities and Colleges with their educational provision.

As a long standing member of NASS and Engage, Barry has delivered training courses at regional level. He is a member of the West Sussex Local Safeguarding Children Board, representing the private sector, and has been involved in the West Sussex / DfE working party to redefine the National Contract for Independent and Non Maintained Schools.
